12 The parties in this case agree that this matter should be remanded for further administrative 13 proceedings and agree on almost all of the issues to be addressed on remand. (See Dkts. 12, 14 14 & 16.) Given this agreement, the Court finds that a stipulated remand would allow for the most 15 expeditious resolution of this case. As such, the Court hereby ORDERS the parties to confer and 16 determine whether they can come to an agreement on a Stipulation for Remand. The parties
17 should submit the stipulation, or inform the Court as to their inability to come to such an 18 agreement, on or before August 10, 2006.

19 DATED this 24th day of July, 2007.
